

WSRC Terms & Conditions for Use of Courts by Members who provide Group Coaching/Fitness Training

These Terms and Conditions apply to WSRC members who use courts for Group Coaching/Fitness Training and receive payment from the participants. A Group is defined as a Coach/Trainer (C/T) plus three or more participants.

1. Coaches/Personal Trainers (C/PT) who are members of WSRC may, by agreement with the Club, book courts for group coaching/training sessions. The Club reserves the right to decline any booking.
2. Courts can be booked by the WSRC member inline with the normal member court booking policy, subject to ensuring there is no clash with Club activities and sufficient courts are available for members.
3. Payment for the court(s) will be taken by MMM as per normal policy.
4. The C/PT will be required to supply to the Club, in advance of the first session, copies/details of:
 - a. Coaching/Personal Training Qualifications
 - b. Insurance Policy
 - c. First Aid Certificate
 - d. DBS check
 - e. Safeguarding training (if juniors or vulnerable adults are attending) to ensure that they are adequately qualified/covered for the activities being provided.
5. The C/PT is responsible for checking that the court and surroundings are in suitable condition for the session and reporting any problems to the Club administrator or the member of staff on duty at the time.
6. The C/PT should take a register at each session which will be made available to the Club administrator on request.
7. The C/PT is responsible for ensuring that the participants are able to safely participate in the planned activities and for their health and safety throughout the session. Any accidents or incidents must be reported to the Club Manager or member of staff on duty at the time.
8. The Club will not provide any equipment for these sessions. Nor will it accept any responsibility for, or store, any equipment belonging to the C/PT.
9. The C/PT is responsible for ensuring that any equipment is appropriate for use by the participants and is properly maintained.
10. The C/PT is responsible for ensuring that they and the participants conform to the Club Code of Conduct during the session.
